What Financial Services can your Financial Adviser provide?

Lynda is authorised by Akambo Pty Ltd t/a Accountants Private Advice to provide advisory and dealing services in the products as detailed in Part 1 of the Financial Services Guide.

What qualifications and experience does your Financial Adviser have?

Lynda has worked in the accounting industry since 1993. She has a Bachelor of Business (BBus), is a Certified Practising Accountant (CPA), is an SMSF Specialist Advisor in Superannuation (SSA) and is an ASIC registered self-managed superannuation fund auditor. She has been with Simmonds Le-Fevre since July 1996. In July 2014 Lynda became a principal of the firm.

She has wide experience across all businesses but chose to focus on self-managed superannuation funds some years ago as this is where her passion lies. Lynda enjoys helping clients set up and manage their superannuation funds encouraging them to focus on investment growth, retirement and estate planning.

Accountants Private Advice's financial advisers focus on assisting their clients to build wealth during their working life then specialise in managing it effectively throughout their retirement. They can provide advice on appropriate investment types and structures, risk management and insurance needs, debt reduction strategies, taxation and estate planning.

Accountants Private Advice concentrates on creating, protecting and enhancing the wealth of their clients by providing them with a personalised and superior advisory service. So, if you are looking for specialists in the field of Financial Planning, our advisers would be more than happy to discuss your future requirements.

What do your services cost?

SLF Strategic Advice Pty Ltd is remunerated by fees paid by you and/or commissions received from product issuers. All fees and commissions are paid to Akambo Pty Ltd t/a Accountants Private Advice who then passes between 80% and 100% of the fees and commissions to SLF Strategic Advice Pty Ltd. Lynda is a director and equity holder of SLF Strategic Advice Pty Ltd and receives remuneration from director fees, salary or business distributions.

Initial Advice Fees

We will discuss your individual needs and objectives and agree our fees with you. The actual fees will depend on factors such as the complexity of your circumstances, goals and the scope of advice.

The following is a guide only:

Type of Fee	Fee Amount

Commissions from Issuers of Financial Products

Accountants Private Advice may receive commissions from life insurance companies when a life insurance product is recommended to you. These commissions can vary depending on the product issuer and type of product.

On all commission arrangements where the commission in the first year is greater than that payable in later years, the maximum upfront (year 1) commission is 66% and the maximum ongoing (years 2+) commission is 22% (inclusive of GST). Where upfront and ongoing commissions are the same, there is no legislated maximum however product providers generally pay up to 33%.

For example:

If your first year's premium was $500 and the initial commission was 66%, Akambo Pty Ltd will receive	$330 in the first year
If your premium for the second and subsequent years was $500 and the ongoing commission was 22%, Akambo Pty Ltd will receive	$110 per annum

For insurance products purchased prior to 1 January 2018, we may continue to be paid commissions in the same manner as what would have previously been advised to you at the time of obtaining the product(s).

These commissions are paid by the insurance company and are not an additional cost to you.

All fees will be clearly stated and agreed with you in the Statement of Advice.
